Title: a book

Author: Vincent

I can not believe the fool didn't hide the Tuning fork here, we have lost 3 men so far and by far this was the hardest place to reach - and I would think no man or woman would EVER travel here. From here, I can only surmise we continue to travel in the only direction we can instead of going back and then follow the mountain range.

I almost slipped and told the tinker that the 8 syllables are actually ones of my choosing, and nothing about the other two that were inherit with the magic door.
